Special guest speaker Dr
Special guest speaker Dr
David Cox presents:

Where are we failing in Australia?
Legislation From Aristotle to John Locke.

Dr David Cox is the Chair of the Law Reform Society in Western Australia. In his presentation he will introduce the history of law and the recognition of changing needs in society.

The role of the Parliament, the judiciary and the people's needs are bound to provide lively debate.

Dr Cox's presentation and discussion will follow immediately after the formal part of the meeting, the presentation of certificates and introduction of Council delegates.
