▶ Impacts of Forced Migration by Mikhaila Smith

51% of the world's refugees are children. In 2000, five of Australia's eight billionaires were from a humanitarian background. Australia has resettled over 800,000 refugees and displaced people since 1945. Join the conversation around migration in Australia and the region.

Mikhaila is from the Red Cross and runs 'Conversations in the Community' an Australian Red Cross program to raise awareness and understanding of these important and topical issues.

▶ My Life as a Fighter Pilot with Sue Freeman

Flight Lieutenant Sue Freeman joined the RAF in 1991. Fast jet pilot training completed and combat ready, Sue flew Tornados on several operations over the 'no fly zone' of Iraq. She has also flown in the Falklands, on multinational exercises in North America and in Europe. More than 5 years ago Sue joined the RAAF and is based at Pearce as a 79 Squadron Hawk 127 instructor pilot. Join U3A Swan Hills members to hear about Sue's exciting and most unusual career and for tea, coffee and conversation in the TAFE Coffee Shop.
